Description

A kitchen that conjures up a stroll through the Mediterranean countryside – where rugged nature meets open spaces, all steeped in culinary tradition. The deep blue satin lacquer fronts with a pore structure convey the special rural character, lending a timeless warmth and cosiness with their subtle wood grain and elegant brass handles. The Systemo quartz worktop and the glass doors of the top units add appealing visual contrasts while still blending harmoniously with the naturally simple, feel-good atmosphere. This mood is also present in the details – including the inserts and Flex-Boxes in natural oak, the open shelving elements, the traditional plate shelf and the curved wall brackets.
